Pupil 1-1 Support Tutor

Full-Time Support Tutor for a lovely, talented Key Stage 4 pupil who battles with seasonal illness and has some mild learning difficulties, requiring support. With the full support of her school, the Tutor will work alongside school teachers and parents at school - or when pupil is ill, at home - in order to continue to enable her to thrive and develop as a well-rounded, confident young woman - academically, and socially.

Some of her passions include art, baking, animals, horse-riding and Minecraft. The role also includes working with her 12 year old sister, providing homework support where necessary and revision /exam preparation. The Tutor will form integral part of team at school with the ability to quickly understand and explain the curriculum.

Though not employed directly by the school, a successful working partnership with the family may well lead to possible employment opportunities with the school in the future.

Ideally we are seeking a wonderful, bright, caring, patient, committed, fun, female university graduate with leadership ability and an interest in working with and developing young minds, to become part of our team in following-on from the previous fantastic tutors we have been blessed to work with.

Preferably with her own transport living in the surrounds of Holme Grange School (Wokingham) or the family residence (in North Surrey). We are a caring, committed and supportive family. Standard holidays and role-related (Teaching Assistant-type) industry compensation apply.
